

Declaration of consent

Gruppe:

"No Risk - No Fun! that's life! As with any kind of physical activity, there are risks involved in taking part in Tauna-Tours events as well. Even though these risks are small and your complete personal safety can be assured by following the instructions we give, and by using our products as intended, minor injury or e.g. damage to clothing may occur. Therefore we release ourselves from potential liability claims using this form. Taking part in Tauna-Tours activities is possible only after submitting this declaration of consent. Climbing and use of the equipment takes place at your own risk. The Tauna-Tours company, as operator, cannot be held responsible for any damage that may arise from taking part in our events or activities, unless such damage is the direct result of wilful or grossly negligent behavior on our part, or by people acting on our behalf. Furthermore, we strictly advise against participation of persons under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or any medication affecting perception or judgement, persons having cardiovascular problems, epileptics (i.e. persons suffering from recurrent seizures or blackouts), persons recently having undergone surgery, or persons suffering from injuries impending movement (sprain, strain, contusion) or spinal injuries, as well as women during pregnancy (12th week of pregnancy and later). To anybody suffering from any kind of heart condition we particularly recommend to not take part in any Tauna-Tours activities without their physician's approval. Below the participants declare that they have read and accept the details presented to them, agreeing to comply with these rules accordingly
